

Call for Papers
JADE-IDE Conference on Economic Development
(6th Annual JADE Conference)
April 13-14, 2024
JETRO Headquarters, Tokyo (Ark Mori Bldg.)

The sixth annual Japanese Association for Development Economics (JADE) conference will be held jointly with the Institute for Developing Economies (IDE) at JETRO Headquarters, Tokyo on April 13-14, 2024. We welcome all papers that investigate topics in economic development. We encourage submissions from young scholars.

Paper Submissions

- Submit your paper online by 24:00 Japan Standard Time (JST) UTC+9 on January 8, 2024. The paper submission portal will be opened on December 1 and announced by email.
- Only full drafts of papers will be considered.
- Include the title, authors, and abstract (150 words max) of your paper, and your name, title, affiliation, and email address. If you are a graduate student, please indicate this.
- Attach your paper in PDF format. Ensure that all fonts, symbols, and equations appear the way they were originally typed.
- The final and completed version of all accepted papers must be received by March 15, 2024.
- The presenter of an accepted paper needs to be a JADE member. If you are not a JADE member, you are expected to join JADE, either as a full member or student member, by March 29, 2024. To join JADE, please activate your membership here.
- Travel may be partially funded for students whose papers are accepted for presentation.
- Contact & questions: conference@jade.gr.jp

Hayami Award

- The fourth Hayami Award will be announced at the conference.
- The selection of the Hayami Award is based on the final version of papers presented by an author who is eligible for the Hayami Award at the conference.
- Indicate if you are eligible for the Hayami Award when you submit your paper.

Fuwa Award

- The third Fuwa Award will be announced at the conference.
- The selection of the Fuwa Award is not related to papers submitted for the conference.
